East of Eden

East of Eden is a Diplomacy Zine published by John H. ('Jack') Masters, 25711 N. Vista Fairways Drive, Valencia, California 91355. (805) 259-2811. EoE is not available by subscription, but is mailed free of charge to persons playing in its games.

Diplomacy is the registered trademark of a game invented by Allen B. Calhamer and owned by the Avalon Hill Co.

A very quick issue this time, just adjudications for two games and a correction for one other. Virtually no press either. No East of Eden is far from dead, although it has almost been an entire month since you last saw a copy. EoE will be around and going strong long after the demise of Black Frog in a few months. But, look for a new 'zine, Pterodactyl, in the near future to continue along with East of Eden.

On to #19 a real warehouse issue of EoE:

A CORRECTION! Somehow the Turkish orders were given twice (the 2nd time in place of French orders) with the last adjudications--and NO CORRECT French orders recorded. Here they are:

FRAN (Brown) A RUH-Mun; A BUR(s)A Ruh-Mun; A BEL-Ruh;
A HOL(h); F Eng-NTH; F LON(s)F Eng-Nth; F Cly-LPL;
F Bre-ENG; F Mar-GOL.

.....
Correct orders for other Great Powers remain as recorded in Black Frog #56, page 8.

The deadline for F'06 remains December 8th, 1981 at 12:00 noon PST.

A question was raised about deadlines in this game. After 1902, deadlines were supposed to be three weeks apart. Winter and (sometimes) summer seasons are seperated, but this does not for the purpose of extending the normal spring/fall or fall/spring interval. It is only for the purpose of eliminating conditional orders based upon builds and/or retreats. It is only possible because BF and BoE are published much more frequently than once every three weeks.

If anybody is interested, the mix-up in French/Turkish orders happened because both France and Turkey phoned in their orders and I recorded them both on the same sheet of paper, and then got a bit careless as I was typing them up after adjudication. Sorry if has inconvenienced anybody. The game will be delayed for one week if anybody requests it. I will treat an NMR as a request for a delay.
